PHIL ROBERTS JOINS STARRAG UK AS SALES MANAGER

Starrag UK has bolstered its nationwide sales team with the appointment of Phil Roberts as Sales Manager to enable the Birmingham-based team to meet an increasing number of enquiries for its comprehensive machine range and engineering solutions.

Phil, whose role will include focusing on customers in Starrag's target areas of aerospace and energy, transportation, industrial and medical devices, brings to Starrag UK more than 20 years' experience in production engineering and machine tool sales, especially in developing solutions for complex turning and multi-axis milling applications.

That skill set aligns perfectly with Starrag's maxim of 'Engineering precisely what you value', which has consistently set the bar in terms of its partnerships with clients using machines and technologies from the Starrag product ranges Berthiez, Bumotec, Dörries, Droop+Rein, Ecospeed, Heckert, Scharmann, SIP and Starrag.

Importantly, Starrag's continued success at companies of every size and in all industry sectors has been built on providing machining solutions tailored for individual customer needs. And it is in such applications where Phil's expertise will be put to good use.

Phil Roberts
